Table of Contents

Devices

Name	Description	Note
IMEI	Unique device identifier	15 digits
Name	Device name - will be displayed on the control panel page	Up to 64 characters
Owner	The user who added the device by entering its IMEI and password into the system	There can only be one owner
Added	Date and time the device was added to the system	-
Tags	Tags are used to group devices for easy searching	Up to 64 characters
Manage
Permission Manager	In the Permissions Manager you can define the users who will have access to the device. You can also define what levels of access a specific user will have	With different access levels the defined user will have no disabled items on the control panel
Delete	Delete the device. If the deletion is successful, another user can become its owner by entering the IMEI and password	To delete, you must enter the password of the device or the password of the device owner's account

To add a device you should press the button Add device, where you should specify the IMEI of the device and its password. It is not obligatory to enter the name - you can add it later in the Devices section

Adding device ✖

Name (optional)

IMEI

Device password

Cancel Add